Tours

Eastern Front—Poland, Stalingrad, Auschwitz, Berchtesgaden

On this tour you will see where World War II began and see areas vital to Hitler and Germany as well as where the war ended for Germany.

We will start our tour in Kraków, Poland where Hitler began his battle for conquest. As we learn about Hitler's attack on the Western front we will travel to a number of concentration camps including Auschwitz to see where much of the Jewish population was being put to death. We will head toward Moscow and experience Germany's attack on Russia, and see the famed Eagle's Nest just outside of Berchtesgaden.

Western Front—Holland, Belgium, France, Italy, Anzio (Italy)

This tour offers you a chance to visit many of the key battle sites that of World War II as Europe defended itself from Germany.

Visit the beaches of Normandy and travel to Belgium and Italy.

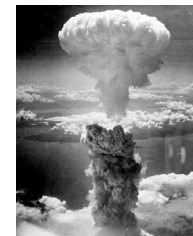

We will start our tour in Holland, and travel by bus through Belgium and Eastern France. These were the first countries to be attacked by Germany on the Western front. We will stay a few days in Paris, the first major city

Normandy Invasion, June 1944

Germany gained control over in June 1940. We will then travel from France to England where you will see where the German air attacks hit London. After London we will cross back over into France and spend two days at the Beaches of Normandy before returning back to the Ardennes and then into Germany to see where the war ended for Adolf Hitler.

Pacific—Pearl Harbor, Midway, Burma, Iwo Jima, Japan

Atomic bomb over Japan

Here you will spend a few days in Hawaii to visit Pearl Harbor, then you will travel to Midway, then to Burma, Iwo Jima, and then end your travels in Hiroshima Japan before returning back home.

Here is the beginning of America's entrance into World

War II. Hawaii was not yet part of the United States, but was a port in which the U.S. used for strategic defense. We will Island hop our way across the Pacific seeing where many Island battles took place. Our tour will culminate in Japan as we visit memorials marking the deadliest bombing known to man.
